When you print out the sheets , insert at the back a number or symbol that will be used later on to pair students at random.

When more activities are created using online resources , I will set the correct order for a PPP lesson.

The activities created so far are :

A domino to pair opposite adjectives that are in the song

The song with gaps for student A and B

Sentences with gaps to insert the correct adjective.

The sentence complete maybe to copy in a transparency for correction.
