APPENDIX 18 for ACTIVITY 8

	POSSIBLE PROMPTS	POSSIBLE ANSWERS FROM STUDENTS
	Is this an obligation sign? How do you know? What will happen if you don't turn left? What can you encounter?	Yes, it is an obligation. Because it is round and blue. Another car may come, I may crash into another car, and maybe nothing will happen if no cars are coming.
	Where can you find this sign? What can you use this table for in a park? What other things can you find or do in a park?	Near a park. We can eat there. We often go to public parks for a picnic. There we can ride our bikes, look for wild animals, run, play and have fun.
	Where can you find this sign? Why is it dangerous?	Maybe it is near a school. Because children may run and sometimes they don't check for cars before crossing the road.
	Is this an obligation or a prohibition? How do you know? What will happen if you turn left? What can you encounter?	Yes, it is a prohibition because it is round and red and there is a line crossing it, which means you mustn't do it. Another car may come towards me, I may crash into another car, and maybe nothing will happen if no cars are coming.
